INTERVENTION STEPS
STATUS	TRIGGERED BY	ACTION
LEVEL ONE Notice of CONCERN	Reason to believe that a violation has or could have occurred pursuant to Education Code §47607(c) : (1) Committing a material violation of any of the conditions, standards, or procedures set forth in the charter; (2) Failure to meet or pursue any of the pupil outcomes identified in the charter; (3) Failure to meet generally accepted accounting principles, or engaging in fiscal mismanagement; (4) Violation of any provision of law.	Notification in writing from the District to charter school leadership, and/or the school's governing board describing the nature of the concern/possible violation and requesting a response from the school.
LEVEL TWO Notice of VIOLATION	Failure to adequately remedy the violation or respond to the notice of concern.	Notification in writing from the District to the charter school governing board describing the nature of violation of Education Code §47607 as well as the evidence and facts supporting the Notice of Violation. School will be provided a reasonable period and deadline by which to remedy the violation, pursuant to Education Code §47607(d) .
LEVEL THREE Notice of INTENT TO REVOKE	Continued failure to adequately remedy the violation and/or respond to the Notice of Violation within the specified timeline.	Written notice of Intent to Revoke and notice of facts in support of revocation, pursuant to Education Code §47607(e) to the charter school governing board. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Within 30 days of issuance of Notice of Intent to Revoke, a public hearing will be held on the matter, pursuant to Education Code §47607(e). • No later than 30 days after the public hearing, OUSD issues its final decision or declares a 30 day extension, pursuant to Education Code §47607(e).
Subsequent Steps: Within 30 days, the charter school may appeal revocation to the Alameda County Board of Education. The County can reverse the revocation decision if it determines that the District's decision is not supported by substantial evidence. The District can appeal the County's reversal decision to the State Board of Education. If the County does not issue a decision within 120 days, or if it upholds the District's revocation, the charter school may appeal the revocation to the State Board of Education. If the State does not issue a decision within 120 days or receipt, the original decision of the district board to deny the petition shall be subject to judicial review.
